Quotes and Jokes...

The greatest moments are those when you see the result pop up in a graph or in your statistics analysis that moment you realize you know something no one else does and you get the pleasure of thinking about how to tell the person.

There was this statistics student who, when driving his car, would always accelerate hard before coming to any junction, it. One day, he took a passenger, who was understandably unnerved by his driving style, and asked him why he went so fast
